

Sylvia Mayer Inducted into National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals

S. Mayer Law is pleased to announce that Sylvia Mayer has been inducted into the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals (NADN) for both arbitration and mediation.

Sylvia Mayer with S. Mayer Law focuses her practice on dispute resolution, including arbitration and mediation. She is both an experienced attorney, having practiced law for nearly 30 years, and an experienced mediator and arbitrator, having focused on dispute resolution since 2014. She has been recognized by her peers as a “Super Lawyer” in the field of dispute resolution. Sylvia is known for her creativity and tenacity in helping parties resolve their disputes.

The National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals is a professional association whose membership consists of ADR professionals distinguished by their hands-on experience in the field of civil and commercial conflict resolution. Membership is by invitation only and all Academy members have been thoroughly reviewed and found to meet stringent practice criteria. Members are amongst the most in-demand neutrals in their respective states, as selected by their peers and approved by local litigators.

“We’re delighted to recognize Sylvia Mayer to the Academy’s Texas Chapter in recognition of Excellence in her mediation practice,” commented Darren Lee, Executive Director of NADN.
